

 BOND UNIVERSITY	STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY
Policy Owner	University Registrar
Contact Officer	Chief Integrity Officer
Endorsement Authority	University Registrar
Date of Next Review	November 2026

1. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

The standards of conduct for all Bond University Students, as set out in this Code, are intended to uphold the good order and management of the University. All students must meet these standards of conduct when participating in University activities and when interacting with fellow students, staff, and other members of the University community such as clients and visitors.

The objectives of this Policy are to:

- encourage conduct which the University community considers appropriate and discourage conduct which the University community considers inappropriate;
- promote an environment where everyone is treated fairly and with respect, and free from Racism and unlawful Discrimination. All staff students and visitors are required to comply with the University's Anti-discrimination Policy;
- promote the University's commitment to dealing with allegations of misconduct in an equitable, consistent, transparent and timely manner; and
- identify Decision Makers, their jurisdiction and penalty powers.

2. AUDIENCE AND APPLICATION

This Student Code of Conduct applies to the conduct of all Bond University students which:

- occurs in the course of undertaking any coursework Subject at the University;
- occurs on land or property owned, leased or occupied by the University (or entities it controls) or a University-affiliated residential college;
- occurs in relation to any work experience or placement program which has a connection to the University;
- is facilitated by, or occurs when using, the University's information technology resources or other University equipment;
- relates to another member of the University community;
- occurs when a person is representing the University in any capacity, including membership of University-affiliated clubs and societies;
- occurs in the course of any University-affiliated activity; or
- otherwise has the potential to affect their suitability to continue as a student of the University, having regard to all relevant circumstances, including fitness to study and the wellbeing or safety of members of the University community, regardless of whether the conduct occurs in their capacity, or circumstances associated with their status, as a student.

The University may deal with alleged misconduct in accordance with this Code of Conduct if the student who is alleged to have committed the misconduct ceases to be a student before proceedings are finalised and may proceed as if the person had continued to be a student.

Students participating in sports at Bond University will be subject to the relevant District/State/National sports Codes of Conduct as well as this Code of Conduct.

The University may elect not to act under this Code of Conduct if it reasonably considers that there is insufficient evidence of the alleged misconduct to undertake an investigation and/or that the allegations concern a student acting in a purely private capacity. Where the University has previously elected not to act, it reserves the right to investigate based on the emergence of new and compelling evidence.

The University may decline to deal with alleged misconduct, or delay misconduct proceedings, where another avenue is considered more appropriate.

Allegations that higher degree by research students have engaged in research misconduct will be managed in accordance with the Research Misconduct Policy.

4. POLICY STATEMENT

4.1. Principles of Integrity

Bond University views integrity as acting in accordance with seven principles of integrity: honesty, fairness, trust, professionalism, courage, responsibility, and respect (see ACAI, 2014). These principles apply across each of the following pillars of integrity:

- Personal integrity – demonstrating the principles of integrity in the behaviour adopted at all times;
- Professional integrity – demonstrating the principles of integrity through an unwavering commitment to professional behaviour and standards;
- Academic integrity – demonstrating the principles of integrity in words and actions across all aspects of academic endeavour; and
- Research integrity – demonstrating the principles of integrity across all aspects of the research process.

The Academic Integrity Policy sets out the University's commitment to academic integrity, recognising that academic integrity is vital to learning, teaching and research, and is a shared responsibility across the University.

The Bond University Student Charter sets out the expectations which students may have of the University during their education at Bond. It also outlines what can be expected of students while they are undertaking their studies at Bond, including recognition that ethical and honest behaviour and treatment underpins the relationship between the University and each student.

4.2. Poor Conduct

Poor conduct refers to behaviour which is inconsistent with the University's principles of integrity and/or its expectations under the Bond University Student Charter but displays one or more of the following general characteristics:

- it was unintentional;
- it may result from inexperience (e.g., during the first Semester of enrolment);
- it may reflect cultural considerations; and/or
- it reflects other mitigating circumstances.

Recidivist behaviour that would otherwise be considered poor conduct may be regarded as misconduct if the student has previously been counselled about the standards of integrity and behaviour expected by the University.

4.3. Definition of Misconduct

Misconduct by a student is any violation of this Code of Conduct, whether inadvertent or deliberate, and can arise from a single act or omission, or a pattern of behaviour. It constitutes prohibited behaviour by a student, or an attempt to commit prohibited behaviour, that:

- impairs the reasonable freedom of others to pursue their studies, research, duties and other lawful activities at the University or on the site of a partner or affiliate organisation, or to participate in the life of the University;
- hinders the pursuit of academic excellence by circumvention of proper procedures in relation to student assessment or research;
- amounts to improper use of University equipment, facilities or information, or improper use of the property of others on the University Site;
- amounts to improper use of the student's role, responsibility or authority during placement with a partner or affiliate organisation; or
- is otherwise instanced in this Code of Conduct.

4.3.1. Level 1 Misconduct

Level 1 misconduct refers to behaviour which breaches the standards of conduct set out in this Code where the extent, impact or seriousness of the breach is reasonably considered not to be substantial.

Recidivist behaviour (of the same) will be regarded as Level 2 misconduct if two previous determinations of Level 1 misconduct have been made against the student.

4.3.2. Level 2 Misconduct

Level 2 misconduct refers to behaviour which breaches the standards of conduct set out in this Code where the extent, impact or seriousness of the breach is reasonably considered to be substantial.

4.4. Academic Misconduct

Academic misconduct is misconduct by a student that occurs in relation to the student's academic endeavours. It encompasses all forms of academic dishonesty or misrepresentation, including but not limited to cheating, or doing anything which may assist a person to cheat, in relation to assessment. Without limiting the effects of this clause or the objectives of the Academic Integrity Policy, academic misconduct includes instances where the student engages in, or attempts to engage in, any of the behaviours, acts or omissions set out in Schedule A by any means, including by use of digital technologies.

4.5. General Misconduct

General misconduct is misconduct by a student that occurs when the student fails to act with personal or professional integrity. Without limiting the effects of this clause, it includes instances where the student engages in, or attempts to engage in, any of the behaviours, acts or omissions set out in Schedule B by any means, including by use of digital technologies.

5. CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE

5.1. Disciplinary Action

A student whose conduct falls below the standards outlined in this Code will be dealt with by the University in accordance with the Student Academic Misconduct Procedure or Student General Misconduct Procedure.

Disciplinary action for misconduct will be informed by the following principles:

- misconduct procedures will be equitable, consistent, transparent and timely, and comply with the requirements of Procedural Fairness;
- decisions relating to alleged breaches of this Code will be made on the Balance of Probabilities;
- penalties imposed for findings of misconduct will be appropriate, proportionate and consistent;
- decision making on misconduct will be delegated to appropriate levels of responsibility within the University, and committees formed to consider student misconduct will include student representation and relevant expertise; and
- students may appeal a decision regarding the determination of misconduct and/or the penalty imposed.

5.2. Orders and Penalties

A range of orders and penalties may be applied depending on the seriousness of the breach, as detailed in Schedule C.

Schedule D sets out the jurisdiction and penalty powers available to the decision makers under this Code.

As a general rule, without limiting the penalty powers available to a specific decision maker:

- penalties which are academic in nature should normally only be imposed for misconduct which occurred in an academic context; and
- penalties which are non-academic in nature should normally only be imposed for misconduct which occurred in a non-academic context.

5.2.1. Failure to Comply with Orders or Penalties

Where a student does not comply with the orders and/or penalties imposed as a result of a finding of misconduct against them, the decision maker may:

- impose further orders and/or penalties;
- institute further misconduct proceedings; or
- request that the University Registrar restrict or limit the student's ability to enrol, receive final results of subjects, graduate or receive a diploma, or reside in student housing until their compliance with all orders and/or penalties has been satisfied.

5.3. University Disciplinary Board

In accordance with the Student Academic Misconduct Procedure or Student General Misconduct Procedure, any decision maker listed in Schedule D (with the exception of the University Appeals Committee) may, prior to determining a misconduct matter, refer the matter to the University Disciplinary Board, having regard to the seriousness of the allegations and/or the limits of the decision maker's own jurisdiction or penalty powers.

The University Disciplinary Board has delegated responsibility to make determinations on all allegations of student misconduct which may be referred to the Board. The terms of reference and membership provisions of the University Disciplinary Board are included as Schedule E.

5.4. Show Cause Notice

In cases of general misconduct (other than Level 2 misconduct), a decision maker, with the exception of the University Disciplinary Board, may give notice to a student in accordance with the Student General Misconduct Procedure that a particular penalty will be imposed unless the student shows cause why the penalty should not be imposed.

If the student fails to satisfactorily show cause to the decision maker within the notice period, the penalty is automatically imposed and the student will be required to comply with any orders made under the terms of the notice.

5.5. Executive Suspension

The Vice Chancellor or University Registrar may exercise an individual discretion to suspend a student from enrolment and/or attendance at the University:

- a) if the Vice Chancellor or University Registrar reasonably believes this is necessary to avert a substantial risk of injury to a person, damage to property, or serious disruption of a University activity; or
- b) pending resolution of legal proceedings in which the student is a defendant if the Vice Chancellor or University Registrar reasonably believes this is in the best interests of the student, and/or other students, and/or the reputation of the University.

The Suspension continues until proceedings are finalised, or the suspension is lifted by the Vice Chancellor or University Registrar once satisfied that the risk or circumstances that necessitated it have passed.

6. DEFINITIONS, TERMS, ACRONYMS

Admissions fraud	Submitting falsified documentation to obtain entry into a Bond University program.
Assessment	The determination of a student's level of mastery of a subject resulting ultimately in a mark or grade. Determined by an examination, assignment, practical, presentation or project work, dissertation, thesis or minor thesis, which a student is required to complete for educational purposes; to provide a basis for an official record of achievement or certification of competence; and/or to permit grading of the student's performance in a subject.
Balance of probabilities	Decisions made on the balance of probabilities require the decision maker to consider whether the evidence is sufficient to determine that the allegation is more likely to be true than not true.
Bullying	Repeated inappropriate behaviour that is unsolicited, intimidating, unwelcome, uninvited, and unreciprocated, which may cause distress to a person and/or create an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

Conflict of interest	Knowledge of or connection with the subject matter of a case or the student/s involved such that a decision maker (or member thereof) cannot objectively consider the evidence and/or, when viewed from the perspective of an objective observer, could create a perception of bias on their part towards or against the student/s involved. In such cases the decision maker (or member thereof) should voluntarily step aside. A substantial association (positive or negative, current, or previous) with the relevant student/s is a strong indicator of conflict of interest but this does not extend simply to the teaching of or familiarity with the student/s in isolation.
Counselling	Counselling through the University's Office of Student Success & Wellbeing, or another organisation agreed between the student and the decision maker.
Decision maker	An Officer or body of the University listed in Schedule D of this Policy.
Discrimination	Discrimination on the basis of an Attribute (refer to the Anti-discrimination Policy) happens if a person treats, or proposes to treat, a person with an Attribute less favourably than another person without the Attribute is or would be treated in circumstances that are the same or not materially different.
Executive suspension	Provisional debarment of a student from enrolment and/or attendance at the University as determined by the Vice Chancellor or University Registrar. There is no avenue within the University for review or appeal of an executive suspension.
Expulsion	Permanent debarment of a student from the University. An expelled student may not attend classes or participate in any University activity on or off campus.
Faculty	Bond Business School, Faculty of Health Sciences & Medicine, Faculty of Law, and Faculty of Society & Design (each of which is headed by an Executive Dean).
Lead educator	The primary allocated teaching staff member of a subject.
Officer	Any employee of the University.
Penalty unit	The amount of money prescribed as one penalty unit in Schedule A of the Student Fees, Charges and Refunds Policy.
Plagiarism	The act of submitting work that misrepresents another's ideas, interpretations, words, or creative works as one's own original work, without acknowledging, citing or referencing the original source of the work, whether this is done inadvertently or deliberately. The ideas, interpretations, words, or creative works may be found in published and unpublished documents, print and/or electronic media, designs, music, sounds, images, photographs or computer codes, or gained through working in a group.
Procedural fairness	Procedural fairness is concerned with the process used in decision making, rather than the outcome of a decision. It requires that the person who might be adversely affected by a decision should be notified of the key issues and given a reasonable opportunity to respond, and the decision maker should be impartial and make evidence-based findings.
Racism	Refers to "the process by which systems and policies, actions and attitudes create inequitable opportunities and outcomes for people based on race. Racism is more than just prejudice in thought or action. It occurs when this prejudice – whether individual or institutional – is accompanied by the power to discriminate against, oppress or limit the rights of others." (Australian Human Rights Commission <sup>1</sup> ).
Restitution	Recompense paid to the University or another person at the order of the decision maker in disciplinary cases for property lost, damaged or destroyed due, in whole or in part, to the conduct of the student.
Semester	A designated academic period, normally of 14 weeks duration including any relevant examination period. Standard semesters in the academic year commence in January, May and September.

Student	A person who is enrolled in one or more subjects or a research program offered by the University.
Subject	A segment of instruction approved by a Faculty or UAU as being a discrete part of the requirements for a program offered by the University and identified by a unique subject code.
Suspension	Temporary debarment of a student from the University. A suspended student may not attend classes or participate in any University activity on or off campus.
University Academic Unit (UAU)	Bond University College (headed by the Director) and Transformation CoLab (headed by the Assistant Provost).
University site	Any land or waterways that are currently the property of, in the possession of, or under the control of the University, together with any associated structure whether permanent or temporary.

INSTANCES OF ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Examples of academic misconduct include but are not limited to:

- a) Plagiarising the work of another person, including a fellow student, by adapting or incorporating it in a piece of assessment without due acknowledgement.
- b) Plagiarising the ideas of an author of a text by incorporating them in a piece of assessment without due acknowledgement.
- c) Collaborating with another student about assessable work and representing that as individual work.
- d) Fabricating, falsifying or mis-stating references, results, records of attendance, measures of performance or tasks completed, which are included or reported in, or relied on, for the purposes of a piece of assessment.
- e) Submitting the same or a similar piece of work twice unless prior approval has been obtained from the Lead Educators of both subjects.
- f) Submitting the same or a similar piece of work when repeating a subject unless prior approval has been obtained from the lead educator of that subject.
- g) Possessing, accessing or using unauthorised material or information in any location during an examination.
- h) Removing or endeavouring to remove from the examination any question or answer paper, other paper provided for use by the student during the examination, or other material that is the property of the University, unless authorised.
- i) Engaging in any type of fraud or misrepresentation, including impersonating another student or allowing another person to impersonate them, for the purpose of completing an examination, assessment task or online activity.
- j) Using or negotiating (or attempting to negotiate) to use a website or other online sources to obtain or purchase (or to seek to obtain or purchase) services or documentation to complete or to contribute to a piece of assessable work. This provision applies even if the specified services or documentation are not utilised in the work completed for assessment. However, it does not apply to obtaining research material, such as published journal articles, books, book chapters or other research outputs, used to complete assessable work with due acknowledgement.
- k) Providing or using contract cheating/ghost writing services (i.e. work submitted by a student is completed by another person, including a fellow student, irrespective of the other person's relationship with the student and whether they are paid or unpaid).
- l) Using artificial intelligence tools to complete or contribute to assessable work in a subject unless this has been authorised by the lead educator of that subject.
- m) Selling, publishing, distributing or bartering (or attempting to sell, publish, distribute or barter), without permission, Bond University subject materials (such as handouts, presentation slides or assessment questions), or student study notes or assessment responses based on such materials, or any other Bond University intellectual material.

INSTANCES OF GENERAL MISCONDUCT

Examples of general misconduct include but are not limited to:

1. Dealing with Others

- a) Creating a disturbance or disruption, or being disorderly or obstructive, in relation to University or University-affiliated activities, including but not limited to classroom-related activities, studying, teaching, research, intellectual or creative endeavour, recreational sport, administration, service, placement with a partner or affiliate organisation, or the provision of communication, computing, or emergency services.
- b) Fraudulent behaviour in connection with the University, including misrepresenting oneself or an organisation as an agent of the University.
- c) Knowingly providing advice, assistance or services outside of the student's authority during placement with a partner or affiliate organisation.
- d) Harassment based on any of the prohibited grounds of discrimination set out in state or federal legislation, for example:
  - i. sexual harassment of a person; or
  - ii. harassment based on an imbalance of power, or on a person's age, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, disability, national origin, race, religion, intersex status, or sexual orientation; or
  - iii. discriminatory or racist behaviour that would be in breach of the Anti-discrimination Policy.
- e) Engaging in any sexual offence defined in the Sexual Harm Policy, including but not limited to sexual exploitation, sexual assault, public sexual indecency or indecent exposure.
- f) Bullying, threatening, endangering, assaulting or causing harm to any member of the University community or member of the public, or causing reasonable apprehension of such harm, either directly or by other means, including using insulting, threatening or obscene language.
- g) Engaging in conduct that results in a conviction, a finding of guilt or a fine for a serious criminal offence, whether or not a formal conviction is recorded, that is detrimental to the reputation of the University wherever the conduct that resulted in that conviction, finding of guilt or a fine occurs.
- h) Making a false, vexatious, malicious, or frivolous complaint regarding inappropriate behaviour of others.
- i) Engaging in any conduct, whether within or outside the University, that is prejudicial to the good order and management of the University or brings the University into disrepute.

2. Facilities and Information

- a) Intentionally damaging or disrespecting, or wrongfully dealing with, the University site or environs, or any property of the University. For example:
  - i. littering;
  - ii. vandalism;
  - iii. lighting a fire without permission;
  - iv. public urination;
  - v. injuring or frightening birds or other wildlife;
  - vi. defacing, or affixing a notice to, part of the University site;
  - vii. damage to, theft of, or failing to return Library material or information technology equipment.
- b) Unauthorised access to, or use of, or assisting another person to gain unauthorised access to University property, resources or facilities.
- c) Unauthorised access to, disclosure of, or use of any:
  - i. University document, record or identification;
  - ii. confidential or privileged information available during placement with a partner or affiliate organisation, including confidential patient records accessed during placement in a healthcare facility.
- d) Forgery, falsification, unauthorised alteration, or misuse of University, or University-related, records, identification or documents (e.g., medical certificates and/or other documentation submitted in relation to deferred examinations or appeals), including Admissions Fraud.
- e) Knowingly disclosing information relating to any University matter which is of a confidential nature and which the student has no right to divulge.
- f) Recording by audio and/or visual means any class, or transmitting such a recording to any other person, without the prior express consent of those recorded.
- g) Misuse of information technology facilities (including software) or communication facilities of the University. For example:
  - i. using a facility for unauthorised purposes;
  - ii. unauthorised modification, transfer or deletion of any hardware, software, or data;
  - iii. unlawful copying of software using a University facility or installing software on a University facility without authorisation;
  - iv. downloading, viewing and/or distribution of illegal, pornographic or extremely violent material.
- h) Misuse, theft, misappropriation, destruction, damage, or unauthorised use, access or reproduction, of property, data, records, equipment or services belonging to the University or any other person or entity.

3. Alcohol, Drugs and Dangerous Items

- a) Unlawfully possessing, using, supplying, manufacturing, distributing or selling illicit, restricted or controlled substances, including but not limited to alcohol, poisons, drugs or drug paraphernalia.
- b) Smoking (using smoking products or electronic cigarettes as defined in the Smoking on Campus Procedure) on any Bond University campus in all indoor and outdoor areas except for Designated Smoking Areas.
- c) Possessing, using or storing any weapon, dangerous instrument, explosive device, fireworks or dangerous chemical.

4. Failure to Cooperate

- a) Breaching policies and procedures of the University.
- b) Failing to comply with workplace health and safety or induction requirements and processes of the University, or a partner or affiliate organisation.
- c) Failing to comply with directions from authorised officers in the performance of their duty, including providing false information, such as false identification, or failing to provide information to the University or to authorised officers in the performance of their duty.
- d) Disobeying a reasonable direction of an authorised officer to promote the good order and management of the University. For example:
  - i. refusing to leave a building or part of a building when directed to do so by a security officer;
  - ii. failing to comply with a direction by a member of academic staff not to record by audio and/or visual means any class, or to refrain from passing recordings of classes to others;
  - iii. failing to comply with or obstructing a member of staff (including security officers) or officers of the public emergency services acting in performance of their duties.
- e) Not satisfactorily complying with an order made by the University Disciplinary Board or other decision maker.

5. Behaviour in Student Housing

Any breach of the Student Housing Rules, as defined in the Student Housing Handbook.

6. Behaviour in Sports

Any breach of the following expectations of behaviour when representing Bond University in sport:

- a) Respect for the rights, dignity and worth of fellow players, coaches, officials and spectators.
- b) Adherence to the game's rules at all times, including when the student is subjected to acts of aggression.
- c) Respect for the talent, potential and development of fellow players and competitors.
- d) Care and respect for any equipment provided or used as part of the activity.
- e) Frankness and honesty with coaches concerning illness and injury and the ability to train for or participate fully within all sporting activities.
- f) Professional conduct in relation to language, temper and punctuality.
- g) High personal behaviour standards at all times.
- h) Respect for the rules of the event and the decisions of officials, with all appeals lodged through formal processes.
- i) Maintaining an appropriate state of physical health for the competition, including being free of the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.
- j) Cooperation with coaches and staff in the development of programs to adequately prepare students for competition at the highest level.

UNIVERSITY DISCIPLINARY BOARD TERMS OF REFERENCE & Membership Provisions

Reporting Relationship

University Disciplinary Board reports to the Vice Chancellor. The Board may submit reports and make recommendations to Academic Senate or University Management Committee on matters within its terms of reference.

Terms of Reference

University Disciplinary Board has delegated responsibility to make determinations on all allegations of student misconduct which may be referred to the Board.

University Disciplinary Board has responsibility for:

- Considering and determining cases of alleged academic and general misconduct against students as defined in the Student Code of Conduct;
- Making orders and issuing penalties in cases of misconduct including suspension and expulsion from the University; and
- Reporting to Academic Senate or University Management Committee on the volume and nature of cases of misconduct against students, including any trends which might inform recommendations or strategies to promote compliance with the Student Code of Conduct and/or minimise the incidence of misconduct.

Membership

Chair

- Senior staff member appointed by the Vice Chancellor

Staff Members

- Ten academic/teaching staff members (two per Faculty appointed by the relevant Executive Dean and two University Academic Unit representatives appointed by the Provost), from whom two will normally be selected for each meeting
- Two professional staff members appointed by the University Registrar, from whom one may be selected for each meeting

Student Members

- Two students appointed by the President of the Bond University Student Association (BUSA) after consultation with the Executive Committee of BUSA, from whom one will be selected for each meeting

Meetings

University Disciplinary Board will meet as required. Meetings will be held in person or online at the discretion of the Chair.

The Chair is responsible for convening the Board for each meeting. Typically the Board will be constituted by a maximum of five members per meeting. No member may participate who has previously had any decision-making responsibility in the case under consideration by the Board or has any other Conflict of Interest.

The student alleged to have committed misconduct may be accompanied by another person (not acting as legal counsel or solicitor), whose primary role is to provide the student with moral support.

Where the student alleged to have committed misconduct identifies as a member of a diverse cohort which is not represented among the Board's membership, the Chair will invite an appropriate representative to join the Board for the relevant meeting if the student requests and consents to this in writing.

A quorum for the meeting is three and must include one student representative. However, a meeting will be considered quorate without a student representative if the student alleged to have committed misconduct requests and consents to this in writing.

In the absence of the Chair, the Secretary may arrange for another representative from the Board membership to act as chairperson.

Protocols

The Board will follow the protocols outlined in the Bond University Academic Senate Committee Protocols as appropriate.
